Zufar Bikbov

Juror

Biography

Exhibiting prodigious talent at an early age, Bikbov received classical art training in his native Russia and graduated cum laude from Zelenodolsk Youth Art School when he was just 14, and never stopped painting. When the time came to choose a profession, his need to help people led him to a medical career. During his study in medical school, residency and finally a move to the US in 2003, art continued to be an essential part of his life.

Since Bikbov has been painting en plein air in the United States, he says his landscapes and townscapes—which still bear marks of what he learned in art school, Russian Impressionism, - have acquired “higher key colors,” with “more joy to them.” For the past decade, Bikbov has received multiple awards at major Plein Air events like Plein Air Easton, Laguna Plein Air, and many others.

Zufar Bikbov has been teaching painting and drawing at Arts Escape in Southbury and currently teaches online courses in Drawing and Painting at his online art school www.russera.com. He also gives in-person workshops in CT and far beyond. See Bikbov’s work at www.zufar.com and his current exhibit at the Guild of Boston Artists at www.guildofbostonartists.org
